KLOVE radio is an inspiration to me and the community in which i live. In today's world everyone is looking for some kind of hope to hold onto. KLOVE is a station that helps guide the lost & the unloved to a place where there is hope & peace. It is also a help to Christians to stay on the right path. KLOVE radio station is uplifting and encouraging to all who listen. It would be a shame to not be able to turn on the radio & listen to encouraging words, songs & testimony's. The world is filled with stress, hopelessness, lonliness & fear...please don't take away the one radio station that will help those that are in despair. There is enough negativity running through the air waves...what the community needs is KLOVE's encourgaing, uplifiting, hoeful, faithful & peaceful words to get them through each moment, each day, each week ect.
